IMAGINING HEAVEN • PART #3

Long Beach Alliance Church • March 22, 2026 • Pastor Chris Lankford

Don't store up treasures here on earth, where moths eat them and rust destroys them, and where thieves break in and steal. Store your treasures in heaven, where moths and rust cannot destroy, and thieves do not break in and steal. Wherever your treasure is, there the desires of your heart will also be.

~Matthew 6:19-21 (NLT)

1) Let's Get A Little Weird

- a) We've all heard stories of people declared legally dead (failure of circulatory/respiratory and/or brain activity), who are later revived and report going through a tunnel or pathway and toward 'the light.'
- b) Some of the biggest Hollywood movies and TV shows are based on sensational stories about "Near Death Experiences" (NDE's). While most are simply for entertainment, many are also rooted in real-life (or death) experiences.
- c) Legitimate estimates have reported that nearly one in every twenty-five Americans (4% of the population!) have reported experiencing an NDE. How should Christ-followers respond to NDE stories we see on TV, hear about in podcasts, or read about in books?

2) The Guardrails On The Road Of Experiences

- a) All Christ-followers should view their life experiences through the 'lens' of Scripture (2 Timothy 3:15-17). God's Word is provided for us to have a reliable and certain foundation for our experiences (2 Peter 1:20-21). God's Word will always "steer you right" to Jesus (John 17:17).
- b) When it comes to the stories of Near Death Experiences, we should not be surprised! The Bible tells us with great certainty there is life after death (1 Corinthians 15:35-58).

- c) However, like all life experiences, everything should be filtered through the lens of Scripture (Romans 15:4). Christ-followers can be fooled and distracted by spiritual-sounding conversations that do not profit anyone and can result in destruction (Titus 3:9-11).
- d) If there are aspects of an NDE that direct people to the "theme" of the Scriptures (Jesus), there can be great value in a mystical experience. We know there is life after death (Hebrews 9:27), but what is most significant is whether or not you know Jesus (2 Corinthians 5:17-21).

3) Investing Well In Your Present Future

- a) The Scriptures are clear that what we do in this life makes a difference in eternity (Matthew 6:19-21). The greatest reward possible in this life and the next is to know God through the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ (John 17:3, Galatians 2:20).
- b) The Bible also speaks of "rewards" in Heaven, crowns that are given to those who have shown distinguished service to God on earth (1 Corinthians 9:24-27).
- c) There are many passages mentioning rewards in Heaven, highlighted by at least five different "crowns" (wreath, reward, meritorious work, authority):
 - i) Crown of Life (James 1:12; Revelation 2:10)
 - ii) Crown of Righteousness (2 Timothy 4:8)
 - iii) Crown of Glory (1 Peter 5:4)
 - iv) Crown of Joy (Philippians 4:1; 1 Thessalonians 2:19)
 - v) Imperishable Crown (1 Corinthians 9:25).
- d) Rather than see these as achievements to secure "more for me" in Heaven, these rewards are for our lives now and today, "on earth as it is in Heaven" (Matthew 6:10).
- e) Following the lead of what we see the "leaders" of Heaven doing, our crowns will ultimately be for the worship of the "Lord God Almighty," to cast before the throne in worship and honor of God (Revelation 4:10-11).
