Prophet, Priest, & King

Long Beach Alliance Church • November 1, 2026 • Pastor Chris Lankford

The Father who sent me has himself testified about me. You have not heard his voice at any time, and you haven't seen his form. You don't have his word residing in you, because you don't believe the one he sent. You pore over the Scriptures because you think you have eternal life in them, and yet they testify about me. But you are not willing to come to me so that you may have life.

~John 5:37-40

1) The Son Is Exalted As Prophet & The Divine King

A) The supremecy of Christ over angels is established by the writer (Hebrews 1:5) who recalls Old Testament verses about the Messiah (Psalm 2:7-9, 2 Samuel 7:14) which are fulfilled by Jesus who bears the name "Son," the firstborn of the new creation (Hebrews 1:6)!

B) When Jesus sacrificed himself on the cross, his blood made a way for the "purification for sins" for mankind (Hebrews 1:3, see also Leviticus 17:11). This resulted in Christ's exaltation in Heaven, deserving of worship because He is enthroned as God (Psalm 97:7).

C) Angels are servants of God (Hebrews 1:7). Like nature (wind and fire, Psalm 104:4), they are under God's divine control and do what God intends in heaven and on earth. Angels serve, but Jesus reigns as their exalted divine King (Hebrews 1:8-9, Psalm 45:6-7).

2) The Son Is Exalted As Priest Of Eternal Salvation

A) Jesus, unlike created things, is eternal (Hebrews 1:10-12, Psalm 102:25-27). He established the universe as Creator, and will bring about everything he intends for eternity. His enemies will be defeated (perhaps by the angels?, Hebrews 1:13-14, Psalm 110:1), for the securing of all those who will respond in faith to Jesus' life, death, and resurrection (Acts 4:12, 1 Timothy 2:5).
