EASTER
SUNDAY

Women's Bible Study

In this study, we will explore every verse of Paul's letter to his friend Titus. You'll see the essential connection between right belief and right character and the way both testify to the goodness of the gospel. And you'll be reminded that our world will be attracted to the gospel when they see its beauty displayed in us.

He Is Risen Indeed!

Long Beach Alliance Church · April 5, 2026 · Pastor Chris Lankford
They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they went in they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. While they were perplexed about this, behold, two men stood by them in dazzling apparel. And as they were frightened and bowed their faces to the ground, the men said to them, "Why do you seek the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen."

~Luke 24:2-6 (ESV)

1) From The Heights Into The Depths

- a) There is something deeply significant in stories of selfless sacrifice. Some examples are Harriet Tubman's tenacious bravery in freeing slaves from the South with her 'Underground Railroad;' Jim Elliot, Nate Saint and three other missionaries martyred for Christ by the Waorani tribe in the Ecuadorian Amazon, or Arland D. Williams' heroic sacrifice in Washington D.C. in 1982.
- b) These, and hundreds of stories like them of selfless sacrifice and service, confirm the words of Jesus, "Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends" (John 15:13).

2) From The Cross To The Grave To 'He Is Risen!'

- a) Jesus' death on the cross for sedition/treason at the hands of the Roman government seems like it is the painful end to the beautiful life of Jesus Christ (John 19:16-37). When Jesus was removed from the cross and buried in the private tomb of Joseph of Arimathea, the ache & sorrow of Christ's disciples has a feeling of finality and hopelessness (John 19:38-42).
- b) Even as Jesus Christ was still being mourned on the earth by His followers, the greatest reversal in all of history was about to be launched by God on the very first Easter morning!
- c) By the power of Christ's work on the cross, salvation was secured once-and-for-all for every person who responds by entrusting their life and loyalty to Jesus Christ (Titus 3:4-7).
- d) Christ was raised from the dead, and promises to do the same for anyone who will trust in His love and life (1 John 4:7-19)! Has the celebration of new life, the real meaning of Easter, taken full control of your heart and life (2 Corinthians 5:17-21)?!
