Woven Into Such A Great Salvation

Long Beach Alliance Church • November 8, 2026 • Pastor Chris Lankford

The kingdom, dominion, and greatness of the kingdoms under all of heaven will be given to the people, the holy ones of the Most High. His kingdom will be an everlasting kingdom, and all rulers will serve and obey him.

~Daniel 7:27

1) Such A Great Salvation

A) The writer of Hebrews establishes Jesus Christ as the supremely trustworthy apex of God's revelation to mankind (Hebrews 1:1-4). All previous promises of God find their greatest fulfillment in a (now) exalted Jesus Christ (Hebrews 1:5-9) who rightly returns to His eternal throne (Hebrews 1:10-12) where He advocates for His followers (Hebrews 7:25) and supports them by means of angelic assistance (Psalm 103:20-22; Hebrews 1:13-14).

B) God's "voice" is Jesus Christ the Son (Hebrews 1:1), and we should be careful to not "drift away" (Hebrews 2:1) from the Word of God (John 1:1, 14) because ignoring what Jesus has said is synonymous with ignoring both the angelically delivered message of the Old Testament and the Jesus delivered message of the New Testament -- the great gospel message which has been provided by God -- "such a great salvation" (Hebrews 2:2-3).

2) God's Great Value Of Mankind

A) God's ultimate revelation of Himself to mankind in the human life of Jesus Christ the Son could be considered pretty disappointing because of Christ's departure to return to His exalted throne in Heaven. But God values mankind so much that He sent His Holy Spirit to dwell in the hearts of those who respond in faith to the gospel message of Jesus Christ (Ephesians 1:13-14; Titus 3:4-7).

B) The Holy Spirit is a life-giving personal presence of God Himself within the life of every follower of Christ providing an ongoing witness of signs, miracles, and wonders of God's extraordinary value of mankind (Hebrews 2:4). The Holy Spirit provides peace and comfort (John 14:16-17, 27), reminds the believer of Christ's words (John 14:26, 15:26-27), and provides guidance to follow the truth in situations where living truthfully is challenging (John 16:12-15, 17:17).

C) God does not intend to place the world under the authority of angels (Hebrews 2:5), this honor is reserved for Jesus ("the firstborn," Colossians 1:18; Hebrews 1:6) and for all of Jesus' brothers and sisters who are His faithful followers (Romans 8:29; 1 Corinthians 6:2-3).

D) This future co-regency of mankind over the earth and the angelic realm is in mind when the writer introduces (Hebrews 2:6) and then mashes together some Old Testament quotations (Job 7:17 & Psalm 8:4-6) in order to express the great value God has placed on redeeming mankind's original role in creation (Genesis 1:28).

E) The text deftly moves between Jesus' accomplishments and mankind's identity in Christ (Hebrews 2:8-9). The union between Christ and His followers is so complete and so strong, it is nearly impossible to tell where the text is speaking of Christ and when it speaks of mankind.

F) This is, of course, intentional! Part of the point of the text is to reinforce that our identity is not found in the promising words of legally binding Law, Prophets, and Writings from the Old Testament. Rather, our identity is found in Christ who is "crowned with glory and honor because he suffered death" (Hebrews 2:9). We are not placing our faith in a future promise, but in a living, miraculous, and powerful Savior. He is the Unique One, the Only One, the Great Son; our Savior, Jesus Christ!
